SILENT PRAYER AND MEDITATION

God of wind and wild sea

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Holy One, we confess it is hard to be the people you are shaping us to be. Through the storms of life, trusting you can feel foolish. We see ourselves falling, we fear we are perishing, we imagine the end of our story as one of utter despair. And yet, you point us again and again to your resurrection spirit. You meet our needs, you calm our storms, you assure us of our dignity and worth, and you fill us with purpose. Forgive us when we give up on your promises. Forgive us when our personal storms convince us that we must go it alone. Hear now our personal cries of fear and failure, that we express knowing you listen and understand.
