SILENT PRAYER AND MEDITATION

Wilted by the heat and chased by life's entanglements, short on assurances and looking for hope, we enter the shelter of this gathering. Greet us again as we stand apart to call on your name, investigate your word, and seek your mercy. Show us fresh paths for faith and discipleship. You alone God hold sway to instruct us and heal us. You who are sacred and eternal, in you we place our trust. Shape our hearts, enliven our minds, renew our spirits and send us out to walk the road of faithfulness. Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess that we have not lived according to your will, but by our own fears and desires. We have not loved you with all our heart, mind, soul and strength, nor have we loved our neighbors as ourselves. By your grace, forgive us, heal our fears, and transform our desires. Send us in fresh directions. Make us new Creations, in the spirit of Christ. Now in the silence, we approach you with our personal prayers.
